TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Methodist Episcopal Orphanage

IN PHILADELPHIA.

"What shall we render unto the Lord for all His benefits towards us?" The work of the Orphanage in the year 1902 opened with the sentiment of this text echoing through all our hearts. By the decision of the Supreme Court, the executors of Colonel Joseph M. Bennett were enabled to distribute the estate, and the strain of financial embarrassment no longer impeded our progress. Early in the year we gave careful attention to the necessity for putting our present buildings in thorough repair and to preparing plans for building a new structure over the present boiler house to contain a dining room on the first floor, an invalids' ward and bath room on the second floor, and rooms for servants on the third floor, the idea being to remove the boiler house and laundry into a new building. Upon receiving estimates for this work, however, we found that the cost of the changes as then outlined would be too great. We are now working on other plans for the enlargement of our facilities in these directions which we hope can be brought within our resources.

"Flower Day," celebrated in May and held under the patronage of the Committee on Salable Articles, was not as largely attended as usual, but the sum of $185.98 was paid into our treasury as the result of their work.

At Easter the children were kindly remembered by gifts of Easter eggs from St. Paul's Church, "Try to Do" Circle of Wharton Street Church and Seventh Street Church. Our steadfast friends of St. John's Sewing Circle made Memorial Day an event with the children by their annual picnic, bringing with them the usual supply of strawberries, ice-cream and cake.

Every effort is made to enliven the summer months by various excursions and picnics. By Mrs. Hill's efforts the captain of the steamer Columbia sent a donation of twenty-four tickets for one of his regular trips to Cape May, and the children had a royal day on the river and bay. The captain was so pleased with their singing and general good behavior that he further gladdened their hearts with a treat of ice-cream. Thirty tickets were also received for a trip on the boat running to Wilmington, and this, too, was thoroughly enjoyed. Through the kindness of the superintendent of the Park trolley several rides through the Park were given. At all such times the children have been warmly commended for their good conduct. Much pleasure was given by Miss Clayton, who took 22 baby boys to Willow Grove, the necessary funds for the trip having been collected by her individual efforts. Upon another occasion the Sabbath-school workers of Fletcher Church gave a most enjoyable picnic.

The Board of Managers deemed it best to omit the usual observance of Donation Day, since our house and grounds both lacked the neat and attractive appearance which we desire them to present to our friends, and it was determined that hereafter the name "Donation Day" shall be changed to "Founder's Day," in memory of our beloved first president, Mrs. Bishop Simpson.

Hallowe'en was a time of fun and frolic, the larger girls entering heartily into the spirit of the evening and contributing their share by baking cakes and making candy. Thanksgiving was observed by a bountiful dinner, the children recalling it with delight several days after. The remembrance of the long illness which shadowed our Christmas last year seemed to heighten the interest and desire to make this the very happiest day possible. To this end our friends contributed many bright and beautiful decorations for the tree, and in its majestic height, reaching from the floor to the ceiling of the Chapel, it was a blaze of brilliancy and splendor.

Every child received from the Managers a well-filled stocking and an individual gift of a book or a doll, a sled, or some other toy.

The oft-told tale of destitution, extreme poverty and ill health meets the Admission Committee at each of its sessions. Mothers and kinsfolk plead earnestly for the admission of their little ones, and the sympathies of the committee are deeply stirred as they endeavor to seek out and provide for the most worthy. During the year twenty-four girls and nineteen boys were admitted; six girls and four boys were entire orphans. Each month some of the children who have been placed in homes are visited by some members of the Dismission Committee; other children are written to, and the committee endeavors to keep in touch with all. The reports from the homes visited have nearly all been very satisfactory. Occasionally difficulties have arisen, which by a visit or a few words of written counsel are easily adjusted. Among the gratifying letters is one from Mr. Richards, of Frackville, with whom David Rano lives. David has shown a preference for house-painting, and while assisting Mr. Richards in the general store, he is being permitted to learn the trade. Mr. Atkins, at Bennom, Del., is so pleased with Robert Davis that he desires to obtain another boy from us. This year eight boys and eight girls have been returned to relatives, six boys and two girls have been placed in homes, three boys have been sent to Girard College, one girl has been transferred from one home to another, and one girl entered Temple College.

In reviewing the reports of the House Committee we find much cause for thankfulness in the good health of the children. Early in the year it was decided that it would be of great advantage to have a physician who should pay weekly visits to the institution and look after its sanitary condition and the general health of the children. Since we are possessed of the means to pay for such service, Dr. A. B. Donaldson, of Bala, was selected to fill the position at a yearly salary, and the committee feels that Dr. Donaldson has been most attentive, careful and painstaking. Another innovation that is working for the better condition of the children is the employment of a dentist. Dr. Salvas, who for a specified sum visits the Orphanage every week. One of the rooms lately used as a ward has been fitted with the necessary dental appliances, at a very moderate cost, through the kindness of a friend. During the year all the dormitories have been fitted up with enamelled beds, thereby greatly improving their appearance. Through the careful oversight of the matron, Mrs. E. F. Smith, the house maintains a neat, orderly appearance, and the children appear well clothed and happy. A housekeeper, Miss Wood, was installed in September, who, in addition to her other duties, conducts each Saturday afternoon a class in cooking for the older girls. During the summer the shortage of coal bid fair to be a most serious problem. Gas was used for cooking and ironing, and for several weeks the boilers were kept going by the use of wood which we were fortunate enough to have on the grounds. The outlook for the winter seemed most depressing, but in our Treasurer we had an indefatigable and earnest worker, who by persistent and insistent effort has succeeded in obtaining enough to carry us through the season.

Members of the Store Room Committee are found at the Orphanage every Monday morning giving out the weekly supplies. This committee also receives and acknowledges all donations. Their report, published in full in later pages, makes interesting reading, and we gratefully record the substantial aid that has been furnished by our friends.

Expenditures in excess of those of any previous year are reported by the Purchasing Committee. This is to be expected, since replenishing in many ways has taken place, the ardor of some of our friends has diminished, and some have withdrawn from the work, feeling that they are more needed elsewhere, hence we have been deprived of many of the generous donations usually sent. The committee has exercised both care and economy in its purchases and the food supplied is of the best quality.

We are indebted to our Clothing Committee for its care of the clothing of our one hundred and five children. This requires and has received time, patience and perseverance. The committee reports and begs to gratefully acknowledge the assistance in its labors which it has received from the King's Daughters Circles of Park Avenue Church and of Mariners' Bethel Church, from Needle Work Guild of Oxford, Needle Work Guild of Ardmore, the House of Industry and the Sunday-school class of Miss Stout of Fletcher Church, and from Mrs. Eicherly and Mrs. Dowler, all of whom have been most faithful and helpful in their work.

The Educational Committee reopened school February 17th, 1902, it having been closed almost three months on account of illness. Sixty-six scholars were in attendance. Both teachers and scholars seemed glad to resume their work. The program arranged by the committee and carried out by the teachers and children on Flower Day was very satisfactory to the committee and highly pleasing to the audience. In September, in pursuance of a resolution of the Board of Managers, our school, except the kindergarten, was not reopened, but seventy children were entered in the public schools in the vicinity. The committee regrets the overcrowding of that school and considers that the teachers are doing wonderfully well under the circumstances. Through the efforts of the Chairman, Lillian Dellow secured a scholarship in Temple College and thus far her work is most encouraging.

At Christmas the kindergartners, under the instruction of Miss Kendig, gave an enjoyable entertainment and distributed little gifts which they had made. To further interest the children the committee proposes to give a series of bi-monthly entertainments on Friday evenings. The first was given on February 6th by Rev. J. Hackenburg; subject, a talk on birds, accompanied with singing and humorous recitations. An interested audience assembled and the occasion was much enjoyed. On Easter Sunday the work of the Sabbath Committee was resumed. Mr. Merchant and his teachers have through all weather faithfully continued their labor of love; Miss Frailey and the Christian Endeavor Societies of Tabernacle, Tioga and Columbia Avenue Churches have again conducted their usual services on Tuesday evenings. On July 1st the Christian Endeavor Society of Green Street Church gave a patriotic service, which was entered into so heartily by the children that the Society remarked that "they had received more than they had given." A pleasant musical evening was given by the male quartette of Fletcher Church. On June 8th, Lizzie Powell, Arthur Wood and Edward McClintock were received into full membership in Fletcher Church. Instruction is named with maintenance as the object of our Society. Let us, then, fully recognize the need for spiritual teaching, that there may be instilled into these young hearts and minds the life principles of faith in Jesus their Saviour and a deep and all-pervading love for Him.

An impression has been created that the work of the Needlework Guild is no longer needed in the Orphanage. This is a mistake. The returns in garments and house linens have been of much value in years past, and we trust all the friends will continue their labor of love and not forsake us this early. One Director from each church is surely very little to ask, and we urge that we may at least count upon that much.

The Needlework Guild reports that it now has on its roll fifty-five Directors; the number of articles contributed, 819; value, $243.16; cash in donations and dues, $78.65; total value, $321.81.

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees reports the following bequests as having been received during the year: Mrs. Freas Brown Fund, $1,000; estate of Caroline E. Stradley, $8.23; Emeline M. Swain Fund, $950.

The Publishing Committee has provided printed stationery for the business correspondence of all our committees, and to this committee we are indebted for the arranging of our Reports for publication, a work in which it has exercised time, skill and patience.

In April, with startling suddenness, there passed from our midst Mrs. John Parker. She returned to her home in the evening, apparently in her usual health, after an afternoon spent in work for the Orphanage, but before the dawn of the following day she had entered into rest. She has served as a Manager from the beginning of the organization, and for twelve years was Treasurer of the Board of Managers, afterwards in consecutive years filling the positions of Chairman of the House and Purchasing Committees, bringing to the work of each her characteristic energy, persistence and eager effort to forward the work which she loved so well.

In the death of Miss Carrie Kinsey, of Bristol Church, we lost another of our earliest managers and one whose active interest in the work never waned.

We gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to Dr. Wendell Reber and Dr. J. Henry Off for gratuitous treatment of the children as oculist and aurist, and to the Methodist, Children's and Presbyterian Hospitals for service rendered to us in the care of our charges when ill. The advice of our solicitors, J. H. Keator, Esq., and M. Verner Simpson, Esq., has been given with uniform courtesy, readiness and despatch, and we thank them cordially.

In drawing our retrospect to a close we can but emphasize the great relief experienced in having our financial burden lightened. While our now assured income is not largely in excess of that heretofore given by our churches, yet it is sufficient to carry on our present work. As the income increases, our facilities for sheltering these needy ones will be increased, but while we rejoice in our material prosperity, yet it enfolds a vein of sadness. We are pained to hear that some of our Auxiliaries have signified their intention of withdrawing from the work, deeming that other claims are now more pressing. We feel that it will be a loss to themselves as well as to us. Twenty-three years of serving together in one cause makes a tie not easily severed, and we are loath to have them go. We feel that devoted hearts are of greater value in advancing our work than ever. As we ask, What of our future? we realize that as a Board of Managers of the Methodist Episcopal Orphanage a great and sacred trust has been given to us; in the ministering of which clear conceptions, sound judgment and self-devotion must animate the spirit of all. "Faithful is he that calleth you" In this assurance let us go forward, and in the doing honor our Church, our Founder, our Benefactor, and, above all, glorify our God.

Corresponding Secretary.
